

Elevated Travel Risk Approval Request Form - Individual

Columbia University's International Travel Planning Policy mandates that Students, Officers of Administration and Support Staff travelling on University-related travel abroad complete a tiered review and approval process based upon the highest ISOS Travel Risk Rating associated with their travel location(s). Travel to "Medium" Travel Risk locations require ISOS Itinerary Review; travel to "High" Travel Risk locations requires ISOS Itinerary Review and dean approval from the school where the student is registered; and travel to "Extreme" Travel Risk locations requires ISOS Itinerary Review, dean approval and, for Morningside affiliates, Provost approval, and for CUIMC affiliates, EVP and Dean of the Faculties of Health Sciences and Medicine approval.

Travel to countries with the Evacuation Status of Stand-By, Evacuate Non-Essential Staff, or Full Evacuation require for Morningside affiliates, Provost approval, and for CUIMC affiliates, EVP and Dean of the Faculties of Health Sciences and Medicine approval

INTERNATIONAL SOS (ISOS)

All Columbia affiliates traveling on Columbia Travel have access to International SOS (ISOS), the University's 24/7 travel emergency assistance provider. ISOS is not insurance, but can provide travelers with a global help line for access to medical and security emergencies. ISOS can also provide information on clinics and doctors, and has mental health counseling resources.

ISOS also has a mobile app that travelers can download to their smartphone where they can chat, in real-time, with healthcare professionals.

If you find yourself in need of immediate assistance while abroad, call ISOS anytime at +1-215-942-8478. Columbia University membership ID: 11BSGC000064

- Smartphone app: https://www.internationalsos.com/assistance-app

(Initial) I understand how to contact ISOS in the event of an emergency while I am abroad.

International SOS Pre-Travel Itinerary Review

Students, Officers of Administration and Support Staff traveling to locations defined as Medium, High, or Extreme, must submit their itinerary to ISOS for review.

All Columbia affiliates traveling to locations with an ISOS Elevated Evacuation Status must submit their itinerary to ISOS for review.

Use the Global Travel online form to submit your itinerary review.

International SOS Trip Registration

All University Affiliates are required to register their trip in International SOS MyTrips prior to trip departure. Register a trip: https://globaltravel.columbia.edu/content/isos-mytrips

(Initial) I will register my trip in ISOS MyTrips per University requirements.

VOLUNTARY PARTICIPATION

No Columbia University affiliate can be required to participate in travel to an ISOS High or Extreme risk location or location with elevated evacuation status. Travel to these locations is strictly voluntary.

TRAVEL POLICY VIOLATIONS

Any international travel policy violation can be reported to your dean and disciplinary action can be taken.

RISK NOTIFICATION STATEMENT

As a Columbia University traveler, you must carefully read and understand the following:

- Your home country's Embassy may not be able to assist you during an emergency. The Embassy may close temporarily or suspend public services for security reasons.
- Access to hospitals, emergency medical care, and prescribed medications may be limited or nonexistent.
- Participation in travel to a location defined as High or Extreme by ISOS has inherent risks. These risks can never be completely eliminated. Potential risks may include, but are not limited to, dangers in health and personal safety, including possible death posed by natural disaster, disease, terrorism, crime, civil unrest and/or various types of violence.
- Additional risks include, but are not limited to, minor and major physical injuries, emotional and psychological injuries inflicted by others and catastrophic injuries resulting in paralysis ordeath.
